Joy of Living Bible Study – Study of 1 Kings

Taught by Carolyn Gaul

Learn about the succession of Israel's rulers! Beginning with the final days of King David's reign, learn how the once united kingdom became divided, and how the blessings and curses as spelled out in Deuteronomy chapter 28 became a reality in Israel's history. This study consists of a workbook with daily homework and small group discussions on Tuesday mornings.

Listening to the Voice of God

Taught by Genetta Holt

In John 10, Jesus says He is the Good Shepherd and that we believers are His sheep who recognize His voice. We want to follow Him into green pastures, beside still waters and down paths of righteousness (Psalm 23) but we struggle doing this while living in a world of chaos, busyness and distraction. Fortunately, Jesus sent the Holy Spirit (John 14) to live in believers to ensure we hear His voice as He guides, comforts and shows us His will for our lives. This study will explore the Person of Holy Spirit and focus on building an intimate relationship with Him so we can respond to His voice. The class will include the practice of connecting with God through scripture, prayer, meditation, and spiritual disciplines.
